About the Artistes

Simanthini Kautha received her Diploma in Music from the Andhra University in 1968 with distinction as Rotary Scholar. She has had formal training from the well known musician Nedunuri Krishnamoorthy and recently from Thanjavur S. Kalyanaraman, a leading vidwan of GNB school. Simanthini has given many concerts over AIR Vijayawada and Hyderabad, and also at many places in Andhra Pradesh. Since moving to this country, she has performed in various places within US and Canada. A resident of Paramus NJ, Simanthini has taken great initiative in organizing the annual Thyagaraja Aradhana Day in Bergen County.

K.S. Mani is a familiar figure for us. He accompanied M.S. Sheela Ramaswamy in April 1987 and Vijaya Prabhakar at our annual day function in December 1987. He learnt violin from Komalavalli and later from M.S. Anantharaman. He lives in Lodi, New Jersey.

Many of us will remember Sathish Pathakota accompanying Vijaya Prabhakar last December during the annual day celebration of SRUTI. He has passed various levels of examination conducted by the Govt. of Karnataka and has received the vidwat title. He lives in Cliffside, New Jersey.
