About the Artists-

Sri. T.V.SANKARANARAYANAN is today one of the most sought after and widely acclaimed vocalists. Endowed with a rich and vibrant voice he sings with great zest and has evolved for himself a style which is strikingly original like his uncle and mentor MADURAI MANI IYER. T.V.SANKARANARAYANAN hails from a family of such music giants as his uncle Madurai Mani Iyer, the latter's father and uncle Madurai Ramaswami Iyer and Madurai Pushpavanam Iyer who were legends in the world of carnatic music. He has traveled to U.S.A, CANADA, SINGAPORE, MALAYSIA AND OTHER COUNTRIES giving concerts. T.V. SANKARANARAYANAN has been the recipient of several awards and titles including the Sangita Natak Academy award presented by the President of India Shri R.Venkataraman. He is admired for his impeccable adherence to SRUTI as also the projection of "RAGA" contours even in the process of executing very intricate "LAYA" patterns. He has also imbibed in full measure the enchantingly beautiful and Bhava laden "UCCHARANA" and phrasing of Sahitya as only the composers may have envisaged. A "T.V.S." concert is a "MUST" wherever Carnatic Music is heard around the globe.

Sri T.K.V. RAMANUJACHARYULU hails from a family of renowned Musicians and had his initial training from his father Sriman T.K. RAMANUJACHARYULU. Thereafter his advanced training from his uncle Sriman N.Ch.KRISHNAMACHARYULU, a renowned violin Maestro of Andhra Pradesh. Sri T.K.R.Ramanujacharyulu started playing Violin from the age of twelve and earned good experience for over two decades. He has accompanied all the top most Vidwans in various Sabhas all over India and given many Solo Performances also. At present he is working as 'A' Grade Violin Artist in All India Radio Tiruchirapalli, Tamil Nadu India.

Sri B.HARIKUMAR was born in 1964 and is Disciple of Mavelikara Shri K. VELUKUTTY And has accompanied many popular artists in India. He was also the accompanying artist to Dr.K.J. Jesudoss in his visit to gulf countries in 1989. He works as Staff artist of All India Radio Tiruchirapally.
